

We need rules to serve the public interest, not the private interests. On June 2, please vote to keep the ownership rules as they are.